Date: 09-11-2017

Dear Sri Srivastava ji,

This VIIIth State Law Commission came into existence on 18-8-2017 with my appointment and immediately undertook the task of scavenging the obsolete and un-useful Acts of the State. Statute Law Revision deals with the excision, pruning off of superfluities and the rejection of clearly inconsistent enactments. The obsolete and obsolescent enactments should be repealed and the bulk of Statute book should be reduced. All such statutes which are sleeping and not in use but yet snaring and in force must be deleted from the Statute Book.

For the present study statutes since 1795 till 31-10-2017 have been taken in to account. At present 2057 Acts are in force and it is proposed to repeal 1166 un-useful and dead enactments and thus 891 Acts shall remain on the Statute Book.

I am glad to submit herewith the First Report of VIIth State Law Commission alongwith Draft Bill of “UTTAR PRADESH REPEALING AND AMENDING BILL 2018” with the hope that the Bill may be laid before the House in its next Session after due scrutiny by the Legislative Department of Government of Uttar Pradesh.

Yours Faithfully,

(JUSTICE A.N.MITTAL)

Govt. Of U.P., Lucknow

FIRST REPORT OF VIIth STATE LAW COMMISSION OF U.P.

LAW is the CROWN of the State. As the Country is known by its Constitution, the State is known by its Laws enacted in consonance with the Constitution. Law has always been a mirror of society. It reflects the policies of State in administration of Justice. Times change and we with them. And so the law must change to reflect the needs of the changing times and conditions. Statute Law Revision is a very important matter. There is always the need for a systematic statute law revision. It should be undertaken at every convenient opportunity. It involves:-

- a. The definite repeal of obsolete or obsolescent enactments;
and
  - b. The changing of the language of the enactments so as to bring them into line with current usage, without making any change in the substance of enactments.
2. In the 1977-78 annual report of the Law Commission No. 92 of England, the commission stated that :

“There are two distinct aspects of this work. One is to facilitate the production of revised edition of the statutes of general application by simplifying the form of those statutes. The other is to further the objectives of statute law reform generally by putting forward specific proposals aimed at reducing the bulk, uncertainty and complexity of the existing body of statute law. The guiding principles of both aspects of the work are, in one word, simplification. Apart from its direct and visible effects , the work is an important ingredient in other law reform work, such as consolidation, where research into detail statutory provision is necessary in order to establish their relevance or practical utility. Until this research has been done, the process of modernizing the existing body of Statute Law cannot in practice be carried out on the substantial scale that is needed.”

3. Hon’ble Mr. Justice V.C.R.A.C. Crabbe, Former Justice of Supreme Court of Justice of Ghana, in his landmark book Legislative Drafting 1993 edition, has suggested that Statute Law Revision should deal with:-

- (a) Enactments which have ceased to be in force, that is
- a. Expired enactments which, having been originally limited to endure for a limited or specific period are not perpetuated or kept in force by continuance. Their purpose is spent by exclusion of time;
  - b. Spent enactments which are exhausted in operation by the accomplishment of their purposes;
  - c. Enactments repealed in general terms, that is, repealed by the operation of an enactment expressed only in general terms;
  - d. Enactments virtually repealed, where an earlier Act is inconsistent with, or is rendered invalid by, a later Act;
    - i. Superseded enactments, where a later Act effects the same purpose as an earlier enactment by repetition of the terms of the earlier enactment;
    - ii. Obsolete enactments, where the state of the things contemplated by the enactment has ceased to exist. It is no longer capable of being put into force because circumstances have changed;
- (b) Unnecessary enactments: here no statutory authority is needed because of the nature of the enactment.

4. Statute Law Revision is in essence a literary exercise. It deals with the excision of dead wood, the pruning off of superfluities and the rejection of clearly inconsistent enactments. It saves a great deal of time and assists in the accuracy and confidence of legal work.
5. Lord Bacon, in his Book Letters and Life (speeding) vi, proposed that in 'reforming and recompiling the statute law':-
  1. The government (should) discharge the books of those statutes whereas the case by alteration of time is vanished...These may nevertheless remain in the libraries for antiquities, but no reprinting of them. The like of statutes long since expired and clearly repealed; for if the repeal be doubtful, it must be so propounded to Parliament.
  2. The next is to repeal all statutes which are sleeping and not in use but yet snaring and in force. In some of these it will perhaps be requisite to substitute some reasonable law instead of them, agreeable to the time; in others a simple repeal may suffice.
  3. The third, that the grievousness of the penalty of many statutes may be mitigated, through the ordinance stand.
  4. The last is the reducing of convenient statutes heaped one upon another to one clear and uniform law.
5. Justice H.R.Khanna in Magan Lal Chhagan Lal vs. Municipal Corporation, Bombay 1974 (2) SCC 402 has observed that "Things are not static either in law or in life. There is a continuing process of growth of law , and one can retard it only at the risk of alienating law from life itself."
6. Scavenging the Statute Book is also as important as legislating the new Law. The legislation is the document which signifies the policies of the Government in power and once assented to by the Head of the State becomes the law of the land till it is modified, changed or repealed by successive Governments through Legislature. Every Citizen is expected to know and obey the law because, ignorance of law is no excuse. But even the law experts and lawyers are sometimes not aware about various laws. Even the law enforcement agencies also sometimes do not know /understand the law. Then how can a simple, illiterate and poor fellow can be expected to know about the law which is in force. No doubt , in the recent years, the complex language of drafting of law has been done away but still it is not as simple to understand the law . Therefore simplicity is one of the most important phenomenon of law. This simplicity can be achieved only when we have limited laws, and it requires timely revision of laws.

7. In the backdrop of aforesaid established and well recognized principles of Statute Law Revision, the Commission has undertaken the task to revise the existing Statutes of State Of Uttar Pradesh.
8. The concern of every state Government has been to revise the Statute Law including repeal of obsolete enactments as well as to change the language so as to bring them into line with current usage. In the State of Uttar Pradesh, this exercise has been taken various times as follows:-
  1. U.P. Repealing and amending Act, 1956 ( U.P. Act No. 30 of 1956) by which 5 principal Acts were repealed and 10 Acts were amended.
  2. U.P. Repealing and Amending (Second) Act, 1957 (Act No. 5 of 1957) by which 01 Principal Act was repealed and 03 Acts were amended.
  3. U.P.Repealing and Amending Act 1958 ( U.P.Act No. 42 of 1958) by which 01 Principal Act was repealed and 10 Acts were amended.
  4. U.P.Repealing Act 2004 ( U.P.Act No. 32 of 2004) by which 03 Repealing and Amending Acts were repealed.
9. At Present as on 31-10-2017 the Statute Book of State of U.P. contains about 2057 Principal and Amending Acts. The job of the Legislature is not only to legislate new Acts, but at the same time the enactments which have lost their value must also be repealed so that the statute book is cleared and the Wagon-loads of Statutes should be reduced to Cart-loads Statutes. The Object of Repealing and Amending Acts is not to bring any change in law but to remove enactments which have become unnecessary. After the creation of new State of Uttaranchal, so many Acts , which were applicable to that State, when it was the part of Uttar Pradesh, have lost their value as the New State of Uttaranchal has its own legislative powers having independent Legislature.

10. One more aspect needs mention. Prior to 1950, the Acts were passed with the name of State as “United Provinces”. It is suggested that now all the Acts which are in force in Uttar Pradesh, should be known by the name of State, i.e. “Uttar Pradesh” Accordingly Sub-clause (1) of Section 2 of the proposed Bill it is being provided that if short title of any Uttar Pradesh Act which in force on the date of commencement of this Act, comprises the words “United Provinces”, then such words shall be substituted by the words “Uttar Pradesh”. Further care has already been taken by sub-clause (2 ) of Section 8 of the Uttar Pradesh General Clauses Act, 1904.
11. Previously also, efforts were made by the then State Law Commissions recommending repeal and amendment of various existing Acts. One of such landmark effort was made by Justice K.N.Goyal Commission by submitting its 11th Report in October 2001 recommending repeal of 859 Acts as well as amending 116 Acts after taking in to consideration the enactments since 1795 till 2000.
12. Again Justice V.C.Mishra Commission in its Ninth Report-2011 submitted on 16th May 2011, recommended for repealing 201 Acts which were passed in between 2001 to 2010. In addition to it , 23 enactments which cover the areas of State of Uttarakhand were also recommended for their repeal. 49 more enactments were sorted out for certain amendments on the ground that the State of Uttarakhand has separate Jurisdiction. It is unfortunate that despite of passing of such a - long time of submitting the reports, the then Governments have failed to take any result oriented action.

13. The present State Law Commission, which came into existence on 18th August, 2017, decided to make study de-novo and found that various recommendations of Justice V.C.Misra Commission are overlapping with the recommendations of Justice K.N.Goyal Commission.
  14. Justice Misra Commission also recommended for repeal of various Notifications relating to the State of Uttarakhand. The Humble submission of this commission is that the States of Uttar Pradesh and Uttarakhand have been re-organized by the Central Act. The Notifications form part of delegated, subordinate or subsidiary legislation, and are issued in exercise of powers conferred by the Statute. The subordinate Legislation device is often used for the extension of the Acts in respect of territory and other objects and duration of time. Therefore said Notifications issued by the then Uttar Pradesh Government regarding some areas of the then Uttar Pradesh, which now forms part of State of Uttarakhand, do not require any specific amendment or repeal because such notification do not form the part of the Act. At present there is no dispute of boundaries in between Uttar Pradesh and Uttarakhand. Therefore such notifications have no force in the state of Uttarakhand, unless they have been adopted or reiterated by the State of Uttarakhand. Further more, any notification may be annulled, modified, extended, expunged , varied or reversed only by subsequent Notification and certainly amendment of the Act is not required at all. The Notifications are issued by the Executive and not by the Legislature. Therefore Legislative action is not required.
  15. The present study is not only confined for the period since May 2011 till date but the previous recommendations have also been considered and an effort is being made to submit a comprehensive and combined report considering the previous recommendations because till now no action has been taken on the aforesaid reports. Moreover, more than 6 years have further passed when the last report was submitted and much water has flown in Ganges since then. Therefore the Statutes upto 31-10-17 have been taken into account.

16. The present Commission is also conscious of the fact that the Commission headed by Justice K.N.Goyal had made a comprehensive correspondence with various concerned Departments of State and very few had responded to it. Some of the Departments were not even aware of the Acts, and in turn they demanded the copy of the Act from the Commission.(para 66 to 68 of the report ). Therefore it is suggested that a soft copy of the present report may be sent to all the Departments of the State through the Chief Secretary inviting their objections/suggestions with in a stipulated period and if any objection/suggestion is not received within aforesaid period, the Legislative Department of State may be directed to proceed in the matter. However if any objection/suggestion is received from any Administrative Department, it should be considered thoroughly by the Legislative Department.
17. In preparing the list of enactments, which are proposed to be repealed and amended, the enactments whose subject matters clearly fall within State List or Concurrent List of Seventh Schedule of Constitution Of India , have been mainly considered.
18. For the sake of convenience, such proposals for repeal have been divided into Three schedules as under:
  1. FIRST Schedule contains such Acts which require repeal in Toto.
  2. SECOND Schedule contains such Acts which have been previously repealed for the particular area but are still prevalent in other areas of State of Uttar Pradesh.
  3. THIRD Schedule contains such Amending Acts which in the opinion of the Commission, should be repealed.

19. Detailed discussion is contained in each Schedule justifying the repeal. The Draft of UTTAR PRADESH REPEALING AND AMENDING BILL, 2018 has also been prepared which is annexed with this report.
20. Before coming to the Draft of UTTAR PRADESH REPEALING AND AMENDING BILL, 2018, a brief summary is required regarding each Schedule.

FIRST SCHEDULE

21. This Schedule contains 137 Acts which are proposed to be repealed in whole for the reason that they are obsolete and have lost their utility. The obsolete laws are repealed by the repealing Act and in the long-run, there is no need to keep repealing Acts on the Statute Book. Sections 6,6-c,7,and 24 of the U.P. General Clauses Act, 1904 takes care of consequences of such repeal. For the sake of convenience, the relevant provisions of U.P. General Clauses Act are re-produced here as under:-

“6. Effect of Repeal- Where any Uttar Pradesh Act repeals any enactment hitherto made or hereafter to be made, then, unless a different intention appears, the repeal shall not-

- (a) Revive anything not in force or existing at the time at which the repeal takes effect; or
- (b) Affect the previous operation of any enactment so repealed or anything duly done or suffered there under, or
- (c) Affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under any enactment so repealed; or

(d) Affect any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any enactment so repealed; or

(e) Affect any remedy, or any investigation or legal proceeding commenced before the repealing Act shall have come into operation in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid;

And any such remedy may be enforced and any such investigation or legal proceeding may be continued and concluded, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment imposed as if the repealing Act had not been passed.”

“6-C. Repeal or Expiration of law, making textual amendments in other laws-

(1) Except as provided by sub-section (2), where any Uttar Pradesh Act amends the text of any Uttar Pradesh Act or Regulation by the express omission, insertion or substitution of any matter, and the amending enactment is subsequently repealed, the repeal shall not affect the continuance of any such amendment made by the enactment so repealed, and in operation at the time of such repeal.

(2) where any such amendment of text is made by any temporary Uttar Pradesh Act or by an Ordinance or by any law made in exercise of the power of the State Legislature by the President or other authority referred to in sub-clause (a) of clause (1) or Article 357, and such Act, Ordinance or other law ceases to operate without being re-enacted (with or without modifications), the amendment of text made thereby shall also cease to operation.

7. Revival of repealed enactments:- In any Uttar Pradesh Act , it shall be necessary for the purpose of reviving, either wholly or partially, any enactment, wholly or partially repealed, expressly to state that purpose.

24. Continuance of appointments, notifications, orders, etc. issued under enactments repealed and re-enacted.- Where any enactment is repealed and re-enacted by an Uttar Pradesh Act, with or without modification, then, unless it is otherwise expressly provided, any appointment or statutory instrument or form, made or issued under the repealed enactment, shall so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions re-enacted, continue in force, and be deemed to have been made or issued under the provision so re-enacted, unless and until it is superseded by any appointment, or statutory instrument or form made or issued under the provisions so re-enacted.

22. Perusal of above provisions makes it crystal clear that repeal of any Uttar Pradesh Act will not affect any work or action taken under the repealed Act nor it will adversely affect any punishment or penalty already granted and suffered . However care has been taken not to repeal any appropriation Act despite of above provisions. The Uttar Pradesh Acts, by which Acts passed by the Union Government have been amended, are also not being proposed to be repealed. Accordingly repealing Acts have also been included in this Schedule. Reasons for repeal have been mentioned in the Third Column and the Legislative Department is requested to examine those reasons and also consult the Concerned Administrative Department.

23. Thus in the back drop of aforesaid provisions, the Acts which are proposed to be repealed by First Schedule are mentioned below along with a short reason for its repeal.

Since Dehra Dun is no longer part of Uttar Pradesh and districts of Mirzapur and Sonbhadra are already covered by Uttar Pradesh Act 40 of 1948, it is necessary to repeal Uttar Pradesh Act, 27 of 1950.

38.	Uttar Pradesh Pure Food Act, 1950 (Uttar Pradesh Act No. 32 of 1950)	In view of section 25 of Prevention of Food Adulteration Act, 1954, and Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006 the Uttar Pradesh Act 32 of 1950 must be deemed to have been repealed. But its formal repeal was still necessary.

43.	Uttar Pradesh Laws (Extension of Application) Act, 1951 (Uttar Pradesh Act No. 14 of 1951)	The laws in force in Uttar Pradesh were extended to Jaunsar Bawar Paragna of Dehra Dun (now in Uttaranchal) and part of district Mirzapur (South of Kaimur Range), now Sonebhadra. Purpose of the Act has been achieved. Hence it is being repealed.
44.	Uttar Pradesh Municipalities (Supplementary and Validation) Act, 1951 (Uttar Pradesh Act No. 15 of 1951)	It has outlived its utility.

Now all these areas are the part of Uttar Pradesh and are now governed by the General Law of Uttar Pradesh except any special Legislation passed by the Uttar Pradesh Legislature. In this Schedule, such Regulations and Acts have been taken which stood repealed in some areas but are still continuing in other areas.
25. List 1 of Third Schedule of U.P.Zamindari abolition and land Reforms Act, 1950 (Uttar Pradesh Act 1 of 1951) had repealed 20 Acts for those areas where the Zamindaari was abolished. At present the Zamindari has been abolished throughout the State. Therefore the partly repealed Acts should be repealed in whole. Moreover, now the Uttar Pradesh Revenue Code, 2006 has also been enacted and has come into force by Uttar Pradesh Act 8 of 2012. Therefore such 20 Acts which were partly repealed, should be repealed in whole.
26. U. P. Municipalities Act, 1916 which is now Uttar Pradesh Municipal Corporations Act, 1959 had repealed the following Acts:-
1. U. P. Municipalities Act, 1916,
  2. U. P. Town Areas Act, 1914,
  3. U. P. Town Improvement Act, 1919,
  4. U. P. Town Improvement (Appeals) Act, 1920,
  5. Uttar Pradesh Town Improvement (Adaptation ) Act, 1948,
  6. U.P. District Boards Act, 1922,
  7. U.P. Local Bodies (Appointment of Administrators) Act, 1953,
  8. Cawnpore Urban Areas Development Act, 1945
27. The above mentioned Acts were repealed by U.P. Municipal Corporation Act, 1959 in the city areas only. However U.P. Town

Areas Act, 1914 has been repealed by U.P.Act No. 12 of 1994. In the same way U.P.Town Improvement (adaptation) Act, 1948 has been repealed by U.P.Act No. 29 of 1966. The U.P.District Board Act, 1922 has been repealed by U.P.Act No. 33 of 1961. Cawnpore Urban Areas Development Act , 1945 has also been repealed and question does not arise to repeal U.P.Municipalities Act, 1916 for the reason that it has already been repealed. In the result following Acts remained for repeal:-

1. U. P.Town Improvement Act, 1919,
2. U. P. Town Improvement (Appeals) Act, 1920,
3. U.P. Local Bodies (Appointment of Administrators) Act, 1953,

28. Subsequently in the year 1965, U.P.Avas evam Vikas Parishad Act, 1965 (U.P.Act 1 of 1966) was enacted which repealed U. P.Town Improvement Act, 1919, U. P. Town Improvement (Appeals) Act, 1920, and Uttar Pradesh Town Improvement (Adaptation ) Act, 1948, in the areas where U.P.Avas evam Vikas Parishad Act 1965 was enforced. Therefore in the Second Schedule it is proposed to repeal aforesaid U. P.Town Improvement Act, 1919, U. P. Town Improvement (Appeals) Act, 1920, and Uttar Pradesh Town Improvement (Adaptation ) Act, 1948,. It is also worth mention that the U. P. Town Improvement (Appeals) Act, 1920, is Central enactment but after the commencement of Constitution of India, this subject falls within the legislative competence of State Government. Accordingly 22 enactments are proposed to be repealed by Second Schedule. Such Acts form part of the proposed Bill therefore there is no need to repeat them here.

THIRD SCHEDULE

29. In the opinion of the Commission, the amending Acts need not to be retained on the Statute Book . There are two types of amendments: textual and non-textual amendments. A non-textual amendment has a separate identity. It does not become part of the Act it purports to amend yet it alters that Act. A Textual amendment amends an existing Act by specifically stating:-
- (a) The section where the amendments are to be made, and how the amendments should be made; or
  - (b) Substituting a completely new section or subsection for the existing section or subsection as it will read after the necessary amendments have been made.
30. It is constitutional principle that a Legislature cannot fetter the hands of a subsequent Legislature. An Act passed in one session can be repealed by an Act passed in subsequent session. As far as Amending Acts are concerned, the amendment takes effect on the date of enforcement of the amending Act and it forms part of the Principle Act. If the Legislature wants to undo the said amendment, a subsequent amending Act is required. Mere repeal of the amending Act will not undo the previous amendments. Section 6 of the Uttar Pradesh General Clauses Act, 1904 makes it clear that Where any Uttar Pradesh Act repeals any enactment hitherto made or hereafter to be made, then, unless a different intention appears, the repeal shall not Revive any thing not in force or existing at the time at which the repeal takes effect; or Affect the previous operation of any enactment so repealed or anything duly done or suffered there under, or Affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under any enactment so repealed; or Affect any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any enactment so repealed; or Affect any remedy, or any investigation or legal proceeding commenced before the repealing Act shall have come into operation in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid; and any such remedy may be enforced and any such investigation or legal proceeding may be continued and concluded, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment imposed as if the repealing Act had not been passed.

31. Section 6-C of the Uttar Pradesh General Clauses Act, 1904 further clarifies the position stating that where any Uttar Pradesh Act amends the text of any Uttar Pradesh Act or Regulation by the express omission, insertion or substitution of any matter, and the amending enactment is subsequently repealed, the repeal shall not affect the continuance of any such amendment made by the enactment so repealed, and in operation at the time of such repeal.
32. In view of the above legal provision and legal protection, it is proposed to repeal around 1007 amending Acts. It is also worth while to mention that the Parliament in the past has also repealed various Amending Acts. Other States have also taken this task and have repealed various amending Acts.
33. The administrative department of the proposed Bill is the Legislative Department of Government of U.P. and the present Bill is within legislative competence of the State Legislature and in the opinion of the Commission, prior assent of President or Governor is also not required although it might have been taken for the Principle Act. The Legislative Department may invite suggestions/objections from the concerned administrative departments .
34. Commission would like to suggest that each Administrative Department of the Government should have up-to-date amended copy of enactments pertaining to their department and they should also have the relevant Rules, Regulations, Notifications and other statutory papers which will not only help in their day to day working but also help in curving out the litigation. Much assistance has been taken from the report of Justice K.N.Goyal report for which the Commission is thankful and obliged to him and His Lordship's team. The Commission is also thankful to Hon'ble Sri Neel Kanth Tiwari, State Minister for Legislative and Sri V.K.Srivastava, Principal Secretary, Legislative for their guidance and valuable suggestions in preparation of this first report in such a short time.
